Volunteer role description

Role Cultural Youth Forum - Young Environmental Volunteer

Organisation Leicestershire County Council

Activities

Join a central forum of young environmentalists and have your voice heard and make some real changes. Share your passions, interests, experience and knowledge and inspire & guide other young people that are taking part in creative projects across the county. You may have the opportunity to lead on insight gathering at events, make recommendations of ways we can be more environmentally friendly, or advise on the materials we use in our displays to name a few, all of which will help shape and inform future plans for Net Zero Leicestershire.

Personal development opportunities

- Learn more about the council's policies and policy making
- Opportunity to develop communication skills
- Further your skills and confidence in working with people of different ages and abilities
- Improve your team building skills
