

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role	My Jewellery, My Story Support Volunteer
Volunteer Manager	Jemma Atkin-Barrett
Where you will be based	Community

Why we want you

We are looking for friendly people who would like to support the My Jewellery, My Story workshops. Listen to people's stories, assist with creative workshops and provide hands-on support for participants to make and create! Make people feel welcome and work with artists in this exciting new project exploring local people's connection to jewellery. Read more about the project here: <https://www.cultureleicestershire.co.uk/projects/my-jewellery-my-story/>

What you will be doing

- Assist with creative workshops by providing hands-on support for participants
- Help with the set up/pack away of workshops
- Make participants feel welcome, listened to and able to take part
- Value people's contribution and help to capture their thoughts and feelings, which will be included in the exhibition
- Help people to complete online snap evaluation forms
- Support public events including vox popping, community events and exhibition launches

The skills you need

- Be prepared to chat and get to know members of the public
- Learn about co-production/ co-creation/ co-delivery by collaborating through the process
- Gain knowledge on the Cossington Necklace, a beautiful Bronze Age necklace that inspired this project.

What's in it for you

- A great opportunity if you are interested in working alongside creative practitioners
- Gain insight from creative practitioners who are keen to share their experience about art and the life of a working artist